HOW ARMY BEAT NAVY IN FOOTBALL

THIRTY THOUSAND PERSONS SEE GREAT BATTLE ON FAMOUS FRANKLIN FIELD—WEST POINTERS SHOW UNEXPECTED STRENGTH AND SCORE TOUCHDOWN AND A GOAL—PLENTY OF PUNTING—LARGE KICKS FIELD GOAL—THE LINES-UP.

PHILADELPHIA, Nov. 28.—In one of the fiercest football games seen on Franklin field this year the army vanquished the navy this afternoon by a score of 6 to 4, a touchdown and a goal against a goal from the field.

Thirty thousand persons saw the husky cadets conquer the sturdy midshipmen in a contest that never lagged. That the naval boys were surprised at the unexpected strength of the army is putting it mildly; they were fairly overwhelmed with the power shown by the cadets. The Annapolis boys entered the game practically sure of victory, while the cadets only hoped to win.

The army's victory, notwithstanding the strength shown, was due more to a misjudged punt by one of the Navy's backs than to the good work of the team, but it took advantage of the misplay and lost no opportunity in making the score. The navy's four points, however, were earned by hard and constant playing.

The teams were as evenly matched as it was possible to make them. The defensive playing of both teams was all that could be desired, so powerful, in fact, that neither team could make much impression on its opponent's line, and in consequence they both played a kicking game.

PLENTY OF PUNTING.
There was more punting in today's game than has been seen on Franklin field this season. Two forward passes and two inside kicks were the only so called modern plays attempted, and of these only one forward pass by the navy was successful.

The day was ideal for football and a brilliant crowd was out to see the fray. On the south stand, the army side, Secretary of War Wright entertained a large party, while directly opposite, on the navy side, Acting Secretary of the Navy Newberry had a large number of guests. Prominent in Secretary Wright's box were Representative and Mrs. Longworth. Assistant Secretary of War Oliver saw the game with a party from a box adjoining that of Secretary Wright.

Miss Ethel Roosevelt cast her fortunes with the navy and had a seat in the enclosure reserved for Newberry and his wife. Among others in this box were Mrs. Metcalf, wife of the retiring secretary of the navy, and a number of friends. To their right was the box of Admiral Dewey.

All the scoring was done in the early part of the first half. The army kicked off and the navy returned the ball after one scrimmage. The West Point boys then tried the line for no gain and Greble punted. Lange, the little quarterback, came across the field at great speed to catch the punt, and to the dismay of the midshipmen he overran the ball, which struck the ground behind him at the 40 yard line.

Chamberlain, for the army, who had dashed down the field to tackle Lange, picked up the bouncing ball, tucked it under his arm and dashed away for the goal line. Lange quickly got up steam and in a stern chase went after the speeding army man and just as Chamberlain was crossing the 10 yard line Lange caught him and brought him down hard on the five yard line. The teams lined up for a supreme effort. Dean was given the ball and plunged into the crouching army men for a good gain, leaving only a few inches between the ball and a touchdown. He was again intrusted with the pigskin and this time he was jammed across for the score. Dean also kicked the goal, which was difficult. The spirited playing by the army did not dismay the navy, however, and they went at West Point with the greatest of confidence. Securing the ball on an exchange of kicks it was worked by good line bucking to the army's 27 yard line, where it was fumbled by Clay and lost. The army immediately punted out of danger, but the Navy came back with a fine exhibition of offensive playing. Unerringly the ball was carried forward by Lange, who ran 20 yards; by Clay, and more often by Richardson, until it was inside the 10 yard line.

LANGE KICKS FIELD GOAL.
Here the army braced, and having four yards to gain to make the first down, the navy decided to try a field goal, which proved easy for Lange from the 15 yard line.

In the first half of the second period of play the ball was always in the Navy territory. Finally the army lost the ball on an inside kick, Lange making a pretty scoop and run of 15 yards to his own 35 yard mark. He followed this up with a 20 yard run to midfield and then the tide of battle turned to the army's side of the field, where it waged throughout the remainder of the half.

With the minutes passing rapidly the Navy began to play desperately to get within striking distance to kick a field goal and top the West Point score, but the army continued to take the ball away from danger. Thus the strife continued until Field Judge Marshall raised his hand and declared the game at an end.

The teams lined up as follows:
Navy—Jones, L. E.; Northcott, L. T.; Meyers, L. G.; Singluff, C.; Wright, R. G.; Leighton, R. T.; Reifsnider, R. E.; Lange, Q. B.; Dalton, L. H. B.; Clay, R. H. B.; Richardson, F. B.

Army—Johnson, L. E.; Byrnes, L. T.; Wier, L. G.; Philcon, C.; Moss, R. G.; Pullen, R. T.; Sterns, R. E.; Platt, Q. B.; Dean, L. H. B.; Greble, R. H. B.; Chamberlain, F. B.

LAHEY-REILLY GO A FIZZLE

SAN FRANCISCO, December 1.—Joe Lahey and Charlie Reilly both returned recently from Honolulu, fought their usual damageless fight, only this time it was for fifteen rounds instead of the six-round affairs in which they appeared in the palmy days of the "amateur fighters." Needless to say, the fight was a draw and with no one hurt, the two fighters must have been thoroughly satisfied, even if the crowd considered it a bit tiresome.

Neither man showed a punch, but as a sparring match pure and simple it was a pretty exhibition. Lahey never was a punisher, and Reilly was little better last night.

Lahey and Reilly fought too cautiously to make anybody's blood curl. The latter had the advantage of reach and skill with both hands, but he was unwilling to wade in and mix it at short range. This cost him the decision.

Lahey showed a far superior knowledge of the game, and whenever Reilly came near him, which was seldom, he met his man clean and tapped him hard. Reilly contented himself with dancing around and shooting one in whenever he saw a chance. The decision of Referee Billy Roche was well received by the crowd.

LA PALOMA ENDS CAREER

SAN FRANCISCO, November 29.—Word has been received from Los Angeles concerning the passing of the old yacht La Paloma. The good vessel was the first to bear that name, which is not to be confounded with the schooner yacht now sailing in Hawaiian waters. The members of the rocking chair fleet and those who have enjoyed the cruises to the southern boundary line of the state will remember the La Paloma as connected with the early history of the sport on San Francisco bay, and later the hospitable ship of Hancock Banning. The word sent north states that "it is feared that the good old yacht La Paloma will not be brought out again as an ocean going craft. Hancock Banning recently had some planks removed at Mormon island yards, and a good deal of the interior taken out. It was found that she would have to be rebuilt from the water line up, and it is certain that new work would cost more than the building of a new boat. La Paloma has been well taken care of during the years she has been out of commission, but like many old craft she is "iron stick," which technically means that the old irons and their acids have damaged the surrounding wood.

OUR MILLIONAIRE SUGAR PLANTER

SAN FRANCISCO, November 29.—C. B. Wells, the millionaire sugar planter of Wailuku, Hawaii, sailed yesterday in the Oceanic steamer Alameda for Honolulu. He came here last Tuesday in the same steamer from the islands, bound for New York and Europe on a three years' tour of the world, but on account of business engagements has had to return to Honolulu. Later, he will come to the mainland to join his daughter, Miss Laura Wells, and make the world tour, in the course of which he will ascend the Nile and make trips to other out-of-the-way places. The Alameda carried three score passengers for Honolulu.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY IN SOUTH AFRICA.

Mr. S. Schneider, of Koffeyfontein, O. R. C., is very grateful to the manufacturers of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. He has found that it cures his children as well as himself of their coughs and colds. They were all coughing and got no relief until this remedy was used. Many parents have made this same discovery. There is nothing better for coughs, colds and croup, and as it contains no injurious substance, there is no danger in giving it to the children. For sale by all dealers, Benson, Smith & Co., agents for Hawaii.
